2022 International Delegation Participation

The first-ever Quantum World Congress took place November 29-December 1st, 2022, in Washington, D.C., at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center. We welcomed more than 700 attendees from around the world, including international delegations from 18 countries. The program featured 120 speakers across all quantum domains, including two Nobel Laureates and the Governor of Maryland. U.S. government participants included representatives from The White House, Office of Science and Technology Policy, National Security Council, U.S. Department of Commerce, National Institute of Standards and Technology, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of Defense, U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, and the U.S. Senate. Delegates represented a wide range of sectors, including industry, academia, government, community, and K-12 students. You can catch up with highlights from 2022 here.

The event is organized by Connected DMV, a nonprofit that brings together Greater Washington's collective assets and brightest minds to deliver initiatives that have the power to fundamentally reshape our physical, digital, economic, and social infrastructure.
